Referenced airtel enclosed an FD-302 reflecting investigation of Detective [redacted] PHOENIX POLICE DEPARTMENT, Phoenix, Arizona, concerning members of the S. S. ACTION GROUP, Phoenix, Arizona. Furthermore, Phoenix set forth a lead for Detroit to advise whether they are aware of the existence of an S. S. ACTION GROUP or leadership in the state of Arizona. b6 b7C

For information of Phoenix, there exist no active investigation of the S. S. ACTION GROUP in the state of Michigan, although Detroit is fully aware of their existance through its ongoing investigation of white supremist groups affiliated with the area nations (Detroit file 100A-43124) and general information is contained in Detroit's domestic security control file (100-0). Investigation has never been instituted in Michigan regarding the S. S. 15 Visitors Hurt by Gas Bomb Mailed to Atlanta NAACP

Eight persons were overcome by fumes and a half-dozen others were injured, none seriously, in the August 21, 1989 explosion of a tear-gas bomb, mailed in a package to the southeast regional offices of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in Atlanta. The victims were on two upper floors where the gas fumes spread and which housed a pharmacy and legal and medical offices. The FBI was called in to aid the investigation.

Skinheads Grow to 3,000, Spread to 31 States

The racist Skinhead movement has grown to a total of 3,000 in 31 states—up from 2,000 in 21 states in October 1988—and has been increasingly active at schools around the country. At the same time, violence-prone Skinheads have been acquiring more deadly weapons, including handguns, sawed-off shotguns and semi-automatic weapons such as AR-15s and AK-47s.

These are major findings of a 32-page report recently published by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. The report, entitled Skinheads Target The Schools, made clear that not all Skinheads are racist; the study cites only the activities of those shaven-headed youths who wear Nazi insignia, preach hatred, and commit violent crimes against blacks, Jews, Hispanics, Asians and homosexuals.

The largest concentration of Skinhead gangs is still in the Western states, followed by the Southern, Midwestern, Middle Atlantic and New England states. But the report noted that the biggest increase in membership since October 1988 took place in the Southeastern states.

The report also said that a high rate of assaults against members of minority groups, and vandalisms against religious institutions, especially synagogues, has continued.

The ADL report noted that while the favored weapons of Skinheads continue to be

FBI Chief Cites War on Hate Crimes

Vigorous FBI investigations of racial and ethnic hate crimes led to a record-breaking 169 convictions between October 1987 and April 30, 1989, FBI director William S. Sessions told the National Commission of the Anti-Defamation League in New York on June 15, 1989.

Judge Sessions also warned against the "growing menace" of the youthful neo-Nazi Skinhead movement. He said 31 cases were initiated by the FBI against Skinhead gang members most of which were successfully prosecuted by local authorities.

Judge Sessions noted that the FBI has this country's "primary responsibility against the forces of prejudice" through civil rights and counter-terrorism programs, which produced more than 7,000 FBI investigations into civil rights cases in the last year. The civil rights program is limited to investigating violations of federal law committed by individuals; the domestic counter-terrorism program investigates the use of force or violence by terrorist groups for political or social ends.

These programs, Judge Sessions said, are designed to prevent hate crime and terrorist incidents, and to react swiftly when they do occur. The FBI director said the counter-terrorism program had made "great progress in breaking the back of white supremacist groups during the 1980s."

knives, baseball bats, chains, and Doc Marten steel-toed boots, gun possession has become more and more commonplace.

The 31 states in which Skinheads are known to be active are: Alabama, Arizona, California, Connecticut, the District of Columbia, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Several national hate group leaders, particularly Tom Metzger of the California-based White Aryan Resistance (WAR), continue to reach out to Skinheads, encouraging them to participate in their rallies, marches and conferences. The Skinheads have responded positively and have shown up at several KKK rallies, where they have been generally welcomed by Klan leaders.

Skinhead recruitment efforts aimed at students, the report said, have taken place in Phoenix, AZ, in New York's Orange County, in McKeesport, PA, in Austin, Houston, and Waco, TX, as well as in Florida, Idaho and Oregon.

In addition to their recruitment and propaganda efforts, Skinhead activity targeted at the schools has produced a number of other incidents:

- Groves High School in Birmingham, Michigan, a Detroit suburb, was spray-painted with swastikas and the words "White Power" and "Skins" on May 14, 1989. Earlier, the epithet "nigger" was scrawled across the lockers of several black students. Other lockers were defaced with swastikas, racist flyers posted outside the school, and a brawl instigated by non-student Skinheads took place at the school.
- In early May at Rosemont Junior High School near Glendale, California the slogans "No Jews," "Happy Birthday Hitler" and "We Are Back In Town" appeared on classroom doors along with swastikas; obscenities about Jews were scratched on student lockers and Jewish teachers' doors. An administrator had previously ejected a non-student Skinhead from the school premises.
- At Douglas County High School in Castle Rock, Colorado, a dozen Skinheads have harassed black students with racial epithets.
- At Sprayberry High School in suburban Atlanta, Georgia, some two-dozen Skinheads have displayed Nazi insignia on their lockers, books and jackets.
- At Oak Ridge High School in Orlando, Florida, during June 1989, two flags were raised over the school, one proclaiming "White Power," the other bearing the insignia of American Front, a Skinhead group based in San Francisco, California. Portable classrooms on the school's premises were spray-painted with swastikas.

Oregon Skinhead Gets Life; 2 Charged in Pittsburgh Killing

Kenneth M. Mieske, 23, a member of the East Side White Pride Skinhead gang in Portland, Oregon, was sentenced in June 1989 to life in prison for beating an Ethiopian black man to death with a baseball bat. Mieske had pleaded guilty to felony murder in the November 13, 1988 death of Mulugeta Seraw, 27, outside his Portland apartment. Mieske must serve at least 20 years before being eligible for parole.

In Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania two McKeesport Skinheads—James Brough, 21, and Richard Gribble, 19—were arrested by city homicide detectives on criminal homicide charges in the beating death of Charles B. Davis, 47, a social worker and doctoral candidate at the University of Pittsburgh. Davis died of blunt-force trauma caused by blows so severe they gashed his forehead and split his nose to the bone. The three had met in a local bar and then went to Davis' apartment. At the time of his arrest, Brough was facing trial on assault and harassment charges in an April 1989 stabbing, had been arrested four times since 1986 on burglary and assault charges and was serving five years' probation on burglary, theft and conspiracy charges.

German police. American investigators have deduced that the one missing bomb was used to destroy Flight 103, killing all 259 aboard, 189 of them Americans, plus 11 persons on the ground.

The PFLP-GC is headed by Ahmad Jabril, a former Syrian Army officer. The State Department said early in 1989 that the group receives direction, logistical support and safe haven from Syria and financial support from Libyan dictator Muammar Khadaffi.

The United States was reported to have evidence that the bomb plot had its origins in Teheran in July 1988, when hardline elements in the government there paid the PFLP-GC several million dollars to avenge the mistaken downing of an Iranian jetliner by a U.S. Navy ship earlier that month.

Skinhead Briefs

- Clark Martell, 29, leader of Chicago's neo-Nazi Skinhead gang, CASH/Romantic Violence, was sentenced to 11 years in state prison on June 21, 1989, for home invasion, robbery and aggravated battery of a female former member of the Chicago Area Skin Heads (CASH). Deducting time he served while awaiting trial and time off for good behavior, Martell will serve at least 4½ years.
- In late September five leaders of the Dallas-based Confederate Hammerskins were indicted on federal criminal charges resulting from civil rights violations. The latest indictment of neo-Nazi Skinheads brings to 16 the number of Hammerskins who have been charged with federal violations in connection with some 40 criminal incidents, including assault, robbery and vandalism. Six of the previously indicted Skinheads pleaded guilty in July to federal civil rights charges and other federal violations in connection with several 1988 intimidation incidents against black people in a Dallas park. Another Skinhead, Daniel Alvis Wood, 20, pleaded guilty to charges of fleeing the state to avoid federal prosecution and a federal grand jury subpoena. Wood had been sentenced earlier to 10 years in state prison for vandalizing a Dallas synagogue in October 1988 and was free on bond pending appeal when he fled the state in May 1989. He faces five additional years. His sentencing was scheduled for October 26.
- Four California Skinheads pleaded not guilty during the Summer of 1989 in the beating of an Iranian couple they mistakenly thought to be Jewish. The Skinheads are: Scott Wilson, 28, of West Covina; Timothy Zaal, 25, of Glendora; Amy Killackey, 19, of West Covina, and her brother William, 21, of Yorba Linda.
- In Milwaukee, Patrick O'Malley, 19, leader of the Skinhead Arm of Milwaukee (SHAM), was sentenced on July 6, 1989 to 10 years in prison for the July 20, 1988 shooting of black teenagers in front of the Milwaukee Skinhead hangout. Hollin Lange, 20, a one-time leader of the Dallas-based Confederate Hammer Skins, was sentenced to 18 months in prison plus five years' probation. Credit for time already served cut nearly a year from Lange's sentence and about three months from O'Malley's.
- In New Brunswick, New Jersey, Skinheads James Donato, 18, and Frank Bruno, 20, were charged in August 1989 with vandalizing the B'nai B'rith Hillel Center at Rutgers University by painting anti-Jewish and anti-black epithets on the outside wall of the building. A juvenile, aged 17, was also being held. Donato told police he had been active in the white supremacy movement since 1986. After his arrest he contacted California extremist Tom

Hate And The Underclass: The Skinhead Phenomenonon

By Sherrie Glass and Gwynn Thayer

Clark Reid Martell, the leader of the Chicago Area Skinheads (CASH) has said, "I am a violent person. I love the white race, and if you love something, you're the most vicious person on earth." He is not alone; his statement articulates the sentiment of a rapidly growing number of people who call themselves Skinheads. Most Skinheads are sixteen to nineteen years old; they identifiably wear steel-toed Doc Marten boots, black or green bomber jackets, Levis or black Swat slacks with suspenders, and feature shaven heads. Many of them also sport a racist ideology; they are anti-black, anti-Semitic, anti-communist, anti-immigrant, and anti-everybody else who is not what they consider "Aryan." The two dozen organized groups in the deep South, Midwest, and West Coast are the fastest growing portion of the racist right. According to the Center for Democratic Renewal, there are now approximately 3500 active members, compared to 300 in 1986. The Nazi skinhead community is continuing to grow in size and intensity.

There is more to the Skinheads than their customary "Seig Heil" salutes; they have developed an ideology of hatred and revolution. One of their leaflets, distributed in Chicago, states, "We would prefer to smash the present anti-white, Zionist, puppet run government with a healthy, new white man's order!" Another Chicago pamphlet declares that "[Skinheads] oppose the capitalist and communist scum that are destroying our Aryan race. . . the parasitic Jewish race is at the heart of the problem."

The hatred that is incited among members is channelled into actions. According to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai Brith, in every U.S. city where Skinheads are visible, they have engaged in criminal activity. They have been charged with at least three murders, many brutal assaults, and acts of vandalism such as burning crosses on front lawns and desecrating synagogues with swastikas. The typical Skinhead victim is unarmed, outnumbered, defenseless, and is always a member of one of the many minority groups that the Skinheads despise.

This scenario becomes even more disturbing in light of the fact that the Skinhead youths are being successfully recruited by the adult racist right. This mass organization is engineered by Tom Metzger, head of the White Aryan Resistance (WAR), which has 2000 members. Metzger also hosts a TV show called "Race and Reason," which is shown on public access stations around the country. His organization opposes capitalism, communism, and "ZOG," the so-called Zionist Occupation Government of the United States. Metzger says that he is attempting to "inject some ideology into the Skins." Belonging to WAR gives the Skinheads the sense of being part of a national organization, and the Skinheads give Metzger and the rest of the racist right a base of support from which to recruit.

The Skinhead movement is considered dangerous because it poses a criminal threat to communities and because it signals a rise in Nazism among America's young people. However, the proliferation of the movement is not in and of itself a problem; rather, it is a symptom of much larger societal problems. An examination of the social and economic dynamics of the movement reveals that the Skinheads are the product of a cycle of poor education, poverty, and misplaced resentment. They are a disenchanted underclass of people whose frustration has led them to take extreme action.

American Skinheads are likely to be working class poor and many have been abused as children. According to Leonard Zeskind of the Center for Democratic Renewal, "[Skinheads] are the first generation of white kids who don't expect to live better than their parents. These kids have come to social consciousness in the age of Reagan, when affirmative action is a bad word and race relations are going backwards. They're alienated and fed up, and no one has reached them except the

Moreover, their economic situation is crumbling further still. White males in 1984 earned 30 percent less, in constant dollars, than they did in 1973. The decline is a result of changes in the types of jobs now available to them. Beginning in the 1970's, many higher wage manufacturing jobs were lost to the economy as corporations closed plants and relocated production overseas to take advantage of low wage third world labor. This decreased availability of manufacturing jobs mostly affects young men without extensive education, who historically have held these jobs. As the manufacturing sector narrows, young men have turned to the lower paying but expanding service sector for work, which provides few benefits and almost no opportunity for career advancements.

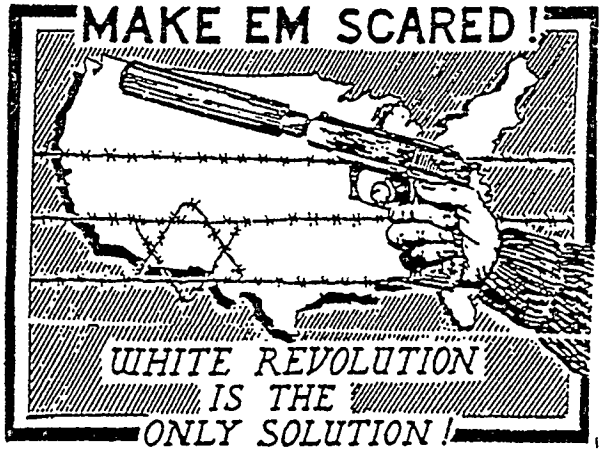
Not only are young men in the 1980's earning less than they did in the 1970's, but inequality among them is growing. In 1973, among men aged 20-24, high school dropouts earned three quarters of what college graduates earned, and now that fraction has dropped to two thirds. Additionally, fewer men of lower income families attend college today. These trends forecast a lower standard of living over time. Hope for the economic future among Skinheads, who often fall into these categories, is dim.

The Skins' racist behavior is an attempt to place blame for their social and economic conditions. Sally Greenberg, East Coast Civil Rights Counsel of the Anti-Defamation League, has said that the Skinheads have a "simplistic approach to complex social problems," and that they are "interested in scapegoating people for problems of community." According to Tom Metzger, "Skinheads were born in violence. They're pissed off at the system. They're fighting it everyday." He asks, "Why do [the Skinheads] feel this way? What has brought them to this position? What is wrong with this system that white kids across the country are joining up with people like me?"

Of course, many of the reasons that racist Skinheads exist are societal and economic, but that does not change the reality of the crimes that they often commit. Law enforcement agencies should vigorously prosecute them for the crimes they commit. Local and state governments should enact stricter laws that punish hate crimes.

On the other hand, the fact that Skinheads are often violent criminals who embrace a hateful ideology often prompts people to want to silence them. They don't want the Skins to express themselves verbally, in written material, or on television. We must never allow this intolerance. Skinheads or any other group must always be allowed free expression. The passionate fury of the Skinheads is partially due to their perception that they are fighting to remain alive in a society which seeks to pull them down. Oppression through silencing would create even more violence. Even worse, it would be a denial of a basic right based upon purely political and fluctuating criteria.

The Skinheads are provoked by a cycle of poverty, despair, and resulting anger and hatred. They are formally uneducated, unable to find jobs, poor, and frustrated with American society. The method they have employed to combat their situation is that of hatred and violence. While the actions of the Skinheads should be condemned, we must examine their social and economic conditions in order to understand what creates the symptom of hatred in America. Our hope for the future is to look for ways to break the cycle of poverty and social injustice that has created the Skinhead phenomenon.



Examples of propaganda distributed by various white-supremacist organizations.

On 5/20/89, the CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT (CPD) arrested a number of subjects (SKINHEADS) at an anti-racist rally located at [redacted] where subjects were arrested for mob action in that the subjects were yelling racist slogans and fighting in the street which created a breach of the peace. The subjects were subsequently transported to the 24th Police District and turned over to area six youth. b6 b7C

Investigation at Chicago has provided the following:

From the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE OF B'NAI B'RITH:

Chicago: The racist CHICAGO AREA SKINHEADS (CASH) have almost completely disbanded since the arrest of [redacted] b6 b7C

Today, CASH has between 6 and 10 members, as compared with 20-30 in early 1988. The group is known to have links to the following SKINHEAD gangs: the CHICAGO WHITE VIKINGS, the SKINHEAD ARMY OF MILWAUKEE, DETROIT AREA SKINHEADS and the TULSA, OKLAHOMA SKINS.

CASH also has ties to a number of established hate groups such as the ILLINOIS KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, AMERICAN FIRST COMMITTEE, the Detroit based S.S. ACTION GROUP and the NATIONAL SOCIALIST DEFENSE LEAGUE.

Another Chicago NEO-NAZI SKINHEAD group, the CHICAGO WHITE VIKINGS, recently emerged on the southwest side of the city, near the southern suburbs. The CHICAGO WHITE VIKINGS have links to the following SKINHEAD groups: CASH, MILWAUKEE AREA SKINHEADS, PITBULL BOYS in Michigan, CONFEDERATE HAMMER SKINS IN DALLAS and TULSA, OKLAHOMA SKINS.

The WHITE VIKINGS promote several established hate groups in their newsletter, among them [redacted] NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WHITE PEOPLE (NAAWP), ARYAN NATIONS, WAR, the NATIONAL ALLIANCE, and BEN KLASSEN'S CHURCH OF THE CREATOR. b6 b7C

From the CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT:

The CHICAGO SKINHEADS are categorized into two primary groups. Both dress in similar punk fashion with close-cut or shaven heads. One group is non-violent and into rock and roll. The other group is prone to violence and can be described as NEO-NAZI in its orientation. This is the group which is the concern.

The violent group is known as CASH (CHICAGO AREA SKINHEADS) whose [redacted] b6 b7C

Due to [redacted] the movement in Chicago at this time is almost dead. The SKINHEADS in Chicago now have no effective leadership and no financial backing.

The SKINHEAD members are described as being of low income, performing menial jobs, and being low achievers looking for some degree of recognition in their lives.

Although aligned in ideology with other right-wing groups such as the KKK, AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, and the S.S. ACTION GROUP, no direction has been noted from these groups to the SKINHEADS.
